Imagineer Quiz

1.) Variables are composed of three parts, what are they?
A. Data type, Row Column
B. Value, Data type, Name
C. Data type, Name, Value
D. Value, Row, Seconds

2.) What does counter++; mean?
A. counter = counter + 1;
B. counter + counter;
C. counter = 1 + 1;

3.) What's the difference between an integer (int) and a double?
A. double is a variable / int is a whole number
B. double is a decimal number / int is a whole number
C. double is a 2 digit number / int is a 1 digit number

4.) Which of the following statements about the accelerometer sensor are true?
A. It measures acceleration in 3-axises: x, y, and z
B. It measures the force of gravity
C. It can be used as a tilt sensor
D. All of the above

5. Go and find a rotation sensor. Bring it back to the instructor.